

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Share Your Faith

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters,
I would like to share with you the following meditation:

Water to Wine, Wine to Blood

O how to admire, venerate, worship, and love this supreme work of God, that he may be exalted above all. [And yet] could there be a greater humiliation than hiding in the form of bread, where all his omnipotence turns into the greatest powerlessness?

Indeed, the miracle of miracles, which is renewed every day, is the transformation of the whole substance of bread into the Body of Christ, and the whole substance of wine into the Blood of Christ, which takes place in every Mass, leaving only the external form of bread and wine. It is a transformation so factual and real that after it there is not a bit of bread—only its shape, color, and taste—and in every component part there is the Body and Blood with the Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

But God did not stop at giving his grace one time, for he wanted the Holy Mass to be celebrated all over the earth so that there is not a single hour, not one day or night, without the Holy Sacrifice taking place somewhere. How happy and safe we are, having such an Almighty and most merciful Spokesman who not only on all the altars on earth continually repeats the sacrifice made at Calvary, but also in heaven still stands before the Father to renew this sacrifice!

Our dear Savior, who no longer changes water into wine, as he did once at the wedding festivities in Galilee, transforms wine into his Precious Blood and bread into his Body. It is not enough for him to be our host, for he wants to be our guest, our companion, friend, our food and drink. Where would you find a host so hospitable as to feed us with his own Body and Blood?

BLESSED HONORATUS KOZMINSKI

Blessed Honoratus († 1916) was a Polish Capuchin Franciscan priest. He founded numerous religious congregations, including the Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate, who have served for many years at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC.

Peace,
Monsignor Mancini

The Wisdom of the Saints

Let the enemy rage at the gate; let him knock, pound, scream, howl; let him do his worst. We know for certain that he cannot enter our soul except by the door of our consent.

*Saint Francis de Sales
Feast Day—January 24*
